NOTE.—The sum of the figures for the individual years does not in certain cases agree with the total number for the entire period of time under review, inasmuch as many of the lives are under observation for portions of more than one calendar year, and consequently appear as risks twice in setting forth the events of the several years.

The sum of the durations must, of course, equal the total duration, but the average durations obviously can differ widely from the duration when the whole term of years is treated. The particulars for 1910 are the latest available.

NOTE.—The sum of the figures for the individual years does not in certain cases agree with the total number for the entire period of time under review, inasmuch as many of the lives are under observation for portions of more than one calendar year, and consequently appear as risks twice in setting forth the events of the several years.

The sum of the durations must, of course, equal the total duration, but the average durations obviously can differ widely from the duration when the whole term of years is treated. The particulars for 1910 are the latest available.

The Hospital Saturday Fund of N.S.W.—This Association is registered under the Companies Act. It is managed by a Board of thirty members and eight honorary officers, all of whom are elected annually. Indoor collections at places of business, household collections by means of boxes, and an annual outdoor collection are made by honorary collectors for this fund. The money obtained is distributed amongst certain hospitals and auxiliary medical charities, and is included in the revenue returns of these institutions. The great outdoor collection throughout Sydney and Suburbs is made each year on the first Saturday in May, which is known conventionally as "Hospital Saturday."

Note.—These "Causes" are taken from the statements in the papers received with the Patients on admission, and are verified or corrected as far as possible by the Medical Officers. The "predisposing" and "exciting" causes are both enumerated in all cases where the predominating causes could not be distinguished, so that the aggregate of the totals for each of these years exceeds the total number of patients admitted yearly.

NOTE.—The Census of the aboriginal population of the State is collected annually by the police on behalf of the Aborigines Protection Board. Great difficulty is experienced by them in collecting the Census, especially in the remote districts, owing to the nomadic habits of the race, many of whom frequently cross the borders of the State, and also travel from one locality to another in the State. Under the circumstances, therefore, the figures in the above table can only be regarded as approximate. * Decrease is doubtless due to a number of those formerly claiming to be aborigines, with a trace of aboriginal blood, including quadroons and octoroons, who have really no rights on a reserve set apart for the use of aborigines, having left the reserves with the object of supporting themselves and their families.

United Charities Fund.—This Fund is administered by a General Committee composed of delegates of the Associated Charities within Sydney and Suburbs, except the medical charities coming within the scope of the Hospital Saturday Fund. Participating institutions must have been in existence for two years, must publish annual reports and balance-sheets, and supply all information desired by the Council. An annual collection is made throughout the Metropolis, and the money is allotted to the charities by the General Council of the Fund. These amounts are included as revenue of the institutions shown in previous tables.

* This column indicates the holdings (for whatever purpose used) on which there was cultivation, however slight. † Since 1909 the figures have been compiled on a slightly different basis to that followed in previous years. The information now obtained is more extensive, and the figures represent the actual growers of fruit, even if there be only a few trees on the holding.

NOTE.—In January and February the fat sheep at market are shorn; during March, and April, they have growing fleece; from May to August they are woolly: and in September, October, November, and December, they are both shorn and woolly, the lower price representing shorn, and the higher the woolly sheep.

Private Bores.—These bores are situated on private holdings, and have been made at the sole cost of the owners.

Water Act, 1912.—The Water Act, 1912, consolidates the Acts relating to Water Rights, Water and Drainage, Drainage Promotion, and Artesian Wells. Part II of the Act vests in the Crown the right to the use, flow, and control of the water in all rivers and lakes which flow through or past, or are situate within, the land of two or more occupiers. It abolishes "riparian rights," and establishes a system of licenses for works of water conservation, irrigation, and drainage. Prior to the passing of the Act relating to Water Rights such works on creeks and rivers, constructed by private individuals, were liable to destruction by any person who considered their existence opposed to his interests. It is now illegal to interfere with any work for which a license has been granted. The security provided is stimulating the construction of irrigation works of a better class throughout the State, and up to the end of June, 1914, 3,100 applications for licenses were received.

Part III of the Act provides for the supply of water, either for irrigation, stock, or domestic purposes, and for drainage, the liabilities on which are repaid to the Crown with interest spread over a period of years, and the works are administered by Trustees appointed from among the beneficiaries under the Act. For the supply of water, trusts have been constituted in connection with (1) 61 artesian wells, (2) 4 schemes for the improvement of natural off-takes of effluent channels, for the purpose of diverting supplies from the main rivers, and (3) in 3 instances for the construction of dams across stream channels, and (4) 2 pumping schemes from natural watercourses. The total area included within these trusts amounts to 4,677,239 acres. In addition, 33 trusts have been formed for the purpose of draining lands and rendering them fit for pastoral and agricultural purposes, and the area being dealt with up to the present amounts to 130,869 acres. The total length of drainage channels constructed is 119 miles 2 chains, the total cost—absolute and estimated—being £113,760, or an average of about 17s. 5d. per acre. The preparation of 8 additional proposals is in hand. These cover an area of 15,575 acres and involve the construction of 21 miles 45 chains of drainage channels.

Artesian Wells Act.—12 bores have been sunk, watering an area of 324,947 acres.

Public Watering Places.—At the close of 1913 there were 708 Public Watering Places, consisting of 364 dams and tanks, 91 wells, and 20 bores within Shire Boundaries, and 167 dams and tanks, 12 wells, and 54 bores within the Western Division of the State.

Irrigation Trusts.—For some years Irrigation Settlements have been in operation at Wentworth and Hay under the administration of the Agricultural Department. These areas are now under the control of the Commissioner for Water Conservation and Irrigation. At Wentworth the area embraces 10,600 acres, of which 1,520 acres are subdivided into 107 blocks. 1,377 acres—in 94 blocks—are held under lease, and about 1,000 acres are cultivated. The pumping machinery consists of a suction gas plant supplying two engines of about 55 B.H.P. each, with an average combined capacity of about 4,600 gallons per minute. The length of the main channels is 4 miles 24 chains, and of subsidiary channels 4 miles 31 chains; in all, 8 miles 55 chains. The land is leased for a term of 30 years, the rent ranges from 1s. to 5s. per acre; the rate for water varies, but each lessee is entitled to receive a quantity equivalent to a depth of 30 inches per annum, the maximum amount in any one month not exceeding 4 inches. The Hay area comprises about 3,842 acres, of which 908 acres are held under irrigation leases at rentals varying from 5s. to 10s. per acre per annum for periods not exceeding 99 years. The water rate is fixed half-yearly, and at present the charge is 10s. per acre. The pumping machinery is very similar to that employed at Wentworth, the capacity of the pumps being 4,000 gallons per minute. 2,744 acres are held as grazing leases at rentals varying from 1s. to 5s. per acre per annum. The Murrumbidgee irrigation scheme provides for the storage of sufficient water at Burrinjuck Dam to irrigate eventually 250,006 acres. The first subdivision was made in July, 1912, and at the close of June, 1914, there were in occupation on the Yanco subdivision 560 farms, aggregating 22,264 acres, and on the Mirrool subdivision 117 farms, comprising 5,643 acres. The lands are subdivided into intensive and mixed farming blocks ranging from 10 acres to 200 acres according to location and the nature of the soil. For water the annual charge is 5s. per "acre-foot," i.e., sufficient water to cover 1 acre to the depth of 12 inches, but the charge is reduced by half for the first year, and is then increased yearly by 6d. per "acre-foot" to the full charge.

No. 94.—Prospecting Votes—Comparative Table.

Prospecting Vote.—The sum of £7,000 was voted for prospecting for gold in 1878, and in subsequent years, at irregular intervals, further small sums were voted and expended. In accordance with a resolution of Parliament, an amount has been voted each year since 1887, during which year it was confined to searching for gold. In the succeeding year the conditions were amended so as to embrace all minerals.

Constitution Act.—The "Constitution Act, 1902," consolidates the Acts relating to the Constitution. Subject to the provisions of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act, the Legislature has power to make laws for the peace, welfare, and good government of New South Wales, provided that all Bills for appropriating any part of the public revenue, or for imposing any new rate, tax or impost, shall originate in the Legislative Assembly.

Legislative Council.—A maximum number of members of the Legislative Council is not fixed by the Constitution Act. In December, 1913, the number of members was fifty-six. Members receive no allowance for expenses, but travel free over the Government railways and tramways in the State. Although the appointment is for life, a member forfeits his seat if absent from two successive Sessions without leave, if a subject of a foreign power, if convicted of a crime, or if he become a public contractor or bankrupt; and he may resign his seat by a letter to the Governor, at any time. The President of the Legislative Council receives a salary of £750 per annum, and the Chairman of Committees £470 per annum.

Legislative Assembly.—New South Wales is divided into ninety electorates, each of which is represented by one member in the Legislative Assembly. The Legislative Assembly continues for three years from the day of the return of the writs of election unless dissolved by the Governor. Each member (except when holding an office of profit under the Crown as a Minister, Speaker, or Chairman of Committees) is entitled to receive the sum of £500 per annum (Parliamentary Representatives' Allowance Act, 1912) by way of reimbursement for expenses incurred in the discharge of Parliamentary duties. Members travel free over the Government railways and tramways in the State, and are provided with official stamped envelopes for the free transmission of correspondence through the post. The seat of a member becomes vacant if the member is absent without permission for a whole session of the Legislature, if he become a public contractor, or bankrupt, a subject of a foreign power, or is convicted of a crime. Any member may, by writing under his hand addressed to the Speaker, resign his seat at any time. The Speaker of the Legislative Assembly receives a salary of £1,000 per annum, and the Chairman of Committees £740 per annum.

Executive Council.—The Executive Council consists of the Governor and of the members of the Cabinet.

NOTE.—Up to 4th October, 1913, Sydney was the headquarters of the Imperial fleet, and ranked as a first-class naval station. Since that date the headquarters of the fleet have been transferred to New Zealand.

Naval Agreement (Commonwealth) Act, 1903.—This Act provided that the Naval Force on the Australian Station should consist of not less than 1 armoured cruiser, 1st-class, 2 2nd-class cruisers, 4 3rd-class cruisers, 4 sloops, and of a Royal Naval Reserve of 25 officers and 700 seamen and stokers. This force was to be connected immediately with the ports of Australia and New Zealand, but the sphere of operations extended to the waters of the Australia, China, and East Indies Stations. One ship was to be kept in reserve and three others partly manned to be used as drill ships for training the Royal Naval Reserve, the remainder being kept in commission fully manned. The drill ships and one other vessel were manned by Australians and New Zealanders paid at special rates, and controlled by officers of the Royal Navy and Royal Naval Reserve. Eight nominations for naval cadetships were available annually to the Commonwealth and two to New Zealand. The naval agreement was for ten years, a yearly charge of £200,000 being paid to the Imperial Government by the Commonwealth, and £100,000 by New Zealand. This agreement terminated on the arrival of H.M.A.S. "Australia," 4th October, 1913, when the Australian Naval Station was finally transferred to the Commonwealth.

Note.—The Royal Naval House was erected in Sydney exclusively for the accommodation of the men of the British Navy. It was built in 1889, at a total cost, inclusive of land, of £25,000, contributed by citizens and by the Government of New South Wales. A new wing was added in 1908 at a cost of £8,600. The House contains large reading, smoking, dining, and billiard rooms, besides a gymnasium, large concert hall, with other accessories. Sleeping accommodation is available for 400 men. The institution is self-supporting, but an annual grant from the Government of New South Wales is devoted to maintaining the House during the absence of the Squadron from Sydney. The House has been used by the men of the fleet very freely, also by the petty officers and men of the Royal Australian Navy.

It is the only establishment of its kind in Australasia, and is controlled by a Superintendent, a Committee elected by the Trustees from among their number, a few Naval Officers, an Honorary Secretary and Treasurer.

Under the Fire Brigades Act of 1909, which came into operation on 1st January, 1910, the responsibilities of all the fire brigades in the State were transferred to the Board of Fire Commissioners of New South Wales. The revenue of the country fire brigades is principally derived from contributions from the Government, the municipal or shire councils interested in the respective fire districts, and the fire insurance companies insuring property within such districts, in the proportion of one-third each, and this sum represents practically the expenditure for the year.

Other Fire Brigades.—In many country districts volunteer fire brigades have been established for the purpose of dealing with bush fires, and at most factories, mines, &c., fire-fighting appliances are kept in readiness. Fire carts are much used in combating bush fires.

Probate and Administration.—By the Wills Probate and Administration Act of 1898, the jurisdiction previously vested in the Primary Judge in Equity is transferred to the Supreme Court in its Probate Jurisdiction, and to such Judge as may be appointed Probate Judge. The duties of the Prothonotary and Ecclesiastical Clerk are now performed by the Registrar of Probates.

Gross and Net Value of Estates.—The figures from the Probate Court and Stamp Duties Department (see Part "Public Finance") relating to transactions in the estates of deceased persons do not agree. The Court gives the gross value of the estates, and includes those estates which, after investigation, are found not to be subject to duty. The number of petitions is also swollen by probates and letters of administration on some estates being taken out a second time. The amount given by the Stamp Duties Department represents the net value of the estates.

Estates—Formal matters.—Under the Administration Amending Act of 1906 the granting of all probates and letters of administration, where no contention has arisen, is now delegated to the Registrar of Probates.

Small Estates—Value £300 and under.—In pursuance of the provisions of the "Wills, Probate and Administration Act of 1898," probate and letters of administration may be granted by the Registrar without the intervention of a solicitor in estates sworn not to exceed £300.

Intestate Estates.—The Registrar of Probates is also Curator of Intestate Estates. He is empowered to apply for an order to administer the estate of any deceased person leaving real and personal estate who has died intestate, and who leaves no widow nor next of kin resident within the jurisdiction of the Court; also, when any person has died testate and appointed the Curator as executor, or leaving no executor, or no executor willing and capable of acting in execution of his will, and in a few other instances.

Prior to the passing of the Matrimonial Causes Act of 1873, the Supreme Court of New South Wales had no jurisdiction in divorce. Under that Act the chief grounds for divorce were adultery since marriage on the part of the wife, and adultery and cruelty on the part of the husband. The present Act was passed in 1892, and during 1893 there was an amending Act. Under these Acts petitions for divorce may be granted for the following causes, in addition to those already mentioned :—

Husband v. Wife.—Desertion, or habitual drunkenness and neglect of domestic duties for three years; refusal to obey an order for restitution of conjugal rights; imprisonment for three years and upwards; attempt to murder or inflict grievous bodily harm, or repeated assaults and cruel beatings during one year preceding the date of the filing of the petition.

Wife v. Husband.—Adultery and desertion for two years; desertion, or habitual drunkenness, with neglect to support and cruelty, for three years; refusal to obey an order for restitution of conjugal rights; imprisonment for three years and upwards; imprisonment under sentences aggregating three years, within a quinquennial period; attempt to murder, or to inflict grievous bodily harm, or repeated assaults and cruel beatings within one year of petition. In order to obtain relief on any of these grounds, the petitioner must have been domiciled in the State for three years and upwards at the time of instituting the suit.

Nullity of Marriage.—Petitions may be granted in cases of marriages which are void by the law of the land; where some statutory requirements have not been observed; or in which one of the parties is incapable to perform the duties of marriage, or has been joined in the marriage ceremony through coercion, or threats; also on the ground of mental incapacity.

Judicial Separation.—In addition to the principal causes for which a divorce may be obtained, judicial separation may be granted for desertion without cause for not less than two years.

Restitution of Conjugal Rights.—Before a suit may be brought, there must have been a request of a conciliatory character to the other party to return to cohabitation.

(a) Sequestration Orders Annulled.—The Court may annul sequestration orders in cases where it is of opinion that a sequestration order ought not to have been made, or where it is shown that the debts of the bankrupt have been paid in full.

(b) Release of Estate.—A bankrupt may have his estate released from sequestration after the acceptance and approval of a composition or scheme of arrangement, or if all the creditors are paid in full, or have given him a legal acquittance of the debts due.

(c) Certificates of Discharge.—Three months from the date of sequestration a bankrupt may give notice by advertisement of his intention to apply for a Certificate of Discharge. The application may be heard within thirty and not less than fourteen days of the date of the first publication of the advertisement. The Court receives a report from the Official Assignee, and may grant, suspend, or refuse an absolute order of discharge. A bankrupt is not deemed to be discharged until he pays all fees due by him and a certificate has been issued.

(d) Composition and Arrangement.—The creditors may accept, and the Court approve, a proposal for a composition, or for a scheme of arrangement, provided that it has been confirmed by a majority representing three-fourths in value of all proved creditors.

Suspension or Refusal of Certificates.—The Court may grant or refuse an absolute order of discharge, or suspend the operation of the order for a specified time, or grant an order of discharge or suspend the operation of such order subject to any conditions with respect to future earnings or income. In certain cases the Court must refuse, suspend, or grant the order subject to conditions. As one of the conditions of granting an order of discharge, the Court may require the bankrupt to consent to judgment being entered against him.

The Assets and Liabilities are "according to Bankrupts' Statements of Affairs." The assets vary in many instances considerably from the statements showing amounts realised; the original figures as to liabilities, however, represent fairly the actual indebtedness.

Petitions withdrawn and refused.—Petitions withdrawn apply wholly to Creditors' petitions withdrawn in consequence of term of settlement approved by the Court, and the petitions refused represent those cases in which the Court is not satisfied that acts of Bankruptcy alleged have been committed, nor with the proof of the petitioning creditor's debt.

Official Assignees.—There are two Official Assignees appointed by the Executive Council, with the approval of the Judge, and when, in the opinion of the Judge, an addition to their number is required, others may be appointed. In each estate the Official Assignee receives 2½ per cent. commission on the amount realised, and 2½ per cent. on the amount of dividends declared. The Court may also grant special remuneration. Under the 98th section of the Act, each Official Assignee is obliged to furnish the Registrar with quarterly statements showing the transactions in each estate.

* Bankruptcy Estates Account.—Each Official Assignee pays all moneys received by him to the Registrar in Bankruptcy, who places the amount to the credit of the "Bankruptcy Estates Account." In special circumstances the Official Assignee may be allowed to open an account with a bank. When the Official Assignee's account and plan of distribution in an estate have been confirmed, the Registrar draws a cheque on the Bankruptcy Estates Account in favour of the Official Assignee, to cover dividends and unpaid charges included in the account and plan. In cases of urgency the Registrar may pay out moneys to the Official Assignee, pending the confirmation of an account and plan

NOTE.—Prior to 1st July, 1911, there was a Vice-Admiralty Court (appointed by the Admiralty) consisting of the Chief Justice as Judge Commissary, and with him was associated a Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court as Deputy Judge. On that date the Vice-Admiralty Court ceased to exist, and the Supreme Court became a Colonial Court of Admiralty, with power to hear and determine matters previously determined in the Vice-Admiralty Court.

* In these cases the Court could not deal with the Certificates, because no serious damage had been caused to a ship, or there was no loss of life in connection with the casualty. † The Court has no jurisdiction over Pilot's Certificates.

Courts of Marine Inquiry.—In respect of British ships, these Courts hear and determine inquiries as to wrecks and other shipping casualties, or as to charges of incompetency or misconduct on the part of masters, mates, or engineers. Appeals and references under the Navigation Act (No. 60, 1901) are also heard and determined. One or more District Court Judges constitute a Court of Marine Inquiry, and the Court is assisted by the assessors appointed under the said Act, but such assessors have power only to advise and not to adjudicate on any matter before the Court.

NOTE.—The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1901, provided for the registration and incorporation of Industrial Unions, for making and enforcing industrial agreements, and for the constitution of a Court of Arbitration for the hearing and determination of industrial disputes, and matters referred to it. The Court was composed of a Judge of the Supreme Court, with one representative each of employers and employees. Under the Industrial Arbitration (Temporary Court) Act, 1905, a Judge of the District Court was made President of the Court.

The Industrial Disputes Act of 1908 preserved the results of the working of the Court of Arbitration. This Act was operative up to and including the 17th April, 1912, when it was superseded by the Industrial Arbitration Act of 1912. The conditions of trade may be settled voluntarily by an industrial agreement, or compulsorily through the medium of the Industrial or Wages Boards, and the Industrial Court.

Garnishee Cases.—Upon the ex parte application of any creditor who has obtained a judgment, the Court may order that all debts due by a third person (the garnishee) to the defendant, except in the cases of wages or salary at £2 per week or under, shall be attached to meet the judgment debt; and, by a subsequent order, may direct the garnishee to pay as much of the amount owing by him as will be sufficient to satisfy the judgment debt. In cases where wages or salary exceed £2 per week, an order may be made only for the amount of wages or salary in excess of that amount.

Interpleader Cases.—When a claim is made to goods held under a writ of execution by a person not party to the suit, the Court may decide the claim, upon application by the bailiff.

Examination of Judgment Debtors.—On the application of a judgment creditor, the Court may order the judgment debtor to be orally examined as to any debts due to him.

Criminal and Quasi-Criminal Appeals.—Appeal from Courts of Petty Sessions to Quarter Sessions is a remedy for bringing the Orders and Convictions of Justices under review at Quarter Sessions. The Court decides questions of fact as well as of law. The right of appeal exists in all cases of convictions or orders by Magistrates excepting orders made under the Seamen's Act, and in cases of adjudication to imprisonment for failure to comply with an order for payment of money, and for finding sureties, &c.

Street-trading Licenses.—The "Neglected Children and Juvenile Offenders Act, 1905," which came into force during October, 1905, provides for the licensing of children engaged in street-trading. Badges are worn during the time of such trading. Only boys between 12 and 16 years may be licensed; the hours of trading are from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. for boys under 14 years, and from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. for boys over 14 years. Girls under 16 years of age are prohibited from trading. Boys of school age may not trade within school hours. Playing, singing, or performing for profit are permitted only in the case of boys over 14 years of age.

Theatre Licenses.—The Children's Protection Act, 1902, prevents children from taking part in public exhibitions or performances whereby the lives or limbs of such children are endangered. Where, however, it is shown that proper provision has been made for the health and kind treatment of children to be employed at premises licensed for public entertainments, children over 7 years of age may be granted licenses under restrictions and conditions. These licenses may be rescinded at any time.

Amount of Consideration.—In many instances the amounts lent upon mortgage by banks are not stated but simply the words "valuable consideration" or "cash credit" inserted in the deeds. As this occurs frequently, when the properties mortgaged are evidently of great value, the absence of the amounts must materially affect the returns, and, as a consequence, the amounts under the head of "mortgages" are incomplete. It follows, therefore, that the "Amount of Consideration" stated applies only to cases in which the specific amounts are stated in the deeds, whether the amounts be the sums actually advanced or not.

The Discharges do not include foreclosures which, if not formally registered as discharges, are nevertheless mortgages cancelled. The returns of discharges are, therefore, incomplete, and the discrepancy between the number of mortgages contracted and discharged is largely due to this cause.

Mortgages on Wool and Crops discharged.—Liens on wool and on growing crops mature at the end of each season, and termina without formal discharge. During 1913 there were 39 discharges of wool liens registered, representing £21,554.

No. 94.—Patents, Copyrights, Trade Marks, and Designs.

Patents.—The administration of the Patents Act of New South Wales was transferred to the Commonwealth of Australia on the 1st June, 1904. The (Commonwealth) "Patents Act, 1903," and the "Patents Act, 1906," are administered by a Commissioner of Patents. A Patent granted under the Commonwealth Act is afforded protection in all the States of the Commonwealth, and remains in force during a period of fourteen years. The Patents Act of 1909 applied the laws relating to patents for inventions to the territory of Papua, and the Patents, Trade Marks, and Designs Act of 1910 relates to the administration of those Acts.

Copyright.—The position of Registrar of Copyright is held by the Commissioner of Patents. Under the Copyright (Commonwealth) Act, 1905, all matters relating to Copyright are administered by the Commonwealth. The copyright in a book, the performing right in a dramatic or musical work, and the lecturing right in a lecture, continue for the term of the author's life and seven years, or for forty-two years, whichever may be the greater period.

Trade Marks.—The New South Wales State Trade Marks Office ceased to receive applications as from the 2nd July, 1906, when the Trade Marks (Commonwealth) Act, 1905, commenced and the administration of the Trade Marks Act of New South Wales was transferred to the Commonwealth. The Commissioner of Patents acts also as Registrar of Trade Marks.

Designs.—The "Designs Act, 1906," commenced from the 1st January, 1907. This Act defines the registration and duration of copyright in designs. The position of Registrar of Designs is held by the Commissioner of Patents.

The Inebriates Act.—The Inebriates Act, 1912, provides for the special control and treatment of inebriates. Where a person has been convicted of an offence of which drunkenness is an ingredient; or of assaulting women, cruelty to children, attempted suicide, or wilful damage to property, and it appears that drunkenness was a contributing cause of such offence, a Stipendiary or Police Magistrate may order that such offender be placed for a period of twelve months in a State Institution established by the Governor for the treatment of inebriates. On the order of a Judge, or of the Master-in-Lunacy, such period may be extended for further periods not exceeding twelve months each. Where a person has, after 9th September, 1909, been discharged from a State institution, or released on license, or discharged on recognizances, and within twelve months thereafter has been convicted of an offence of which drunkenness is an ingredient, and has subsequently and during the said twelve months been charged with any offence, as herein mentioned, the Court may order him to be placed in a State Institution for a period not exceeding three years. Inmates are employed in remunerative and useful occupations.

Surrenders, Exchanges, and Road Resumptions.—Surrenders and exchanges are effected under the 46th section of the 1889 Act and the 47th section of the 1895 Act, and Road Resumptions are treated under section 42 of the 1889 Act. As land is exchanged for land without any monetary consideration, the extent of the area of Crown Lands is not thereby affected.

Resumptions and Purchases.—The total alienations represent the gross area, no allowance being made for the gifts of land and the resumptions and direct purchases made from private owners on behalf of the various departments, for particulars of which see Tables Nos. 47 and 48.

* Frontage to streets was 1,495 feet, and sold at an average price of £4 7s. 1d. per foot. Total sales, £6,507 17s. 6d.

† The figures quoted represent the area on which the balance of purchase-money was paid during the year, and consequently average price per acre cannot be given.

NOTE.—Under the Closer Settlement Act of 1910, three or more intending settlers, each possessing the qualifications necessary to hold a settlement purchase, may enter into negotiations for the purchase of suitable land in their own district or in localities where they may wish to settle, and each person must hold his farm solely in his own interests and not on any system of co-operation with the other applicants. Each applicant is required to lodge a deposit of £5, and any further sum required to meet costs of dealing with his application, survey, &c. The next cost is $5\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. on the Crown valuation of the farm, of which $94\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. is advanced by the Government Savings Bank; and thereafter, annual instalments of $5\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. (being $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. interest and 1 per cent. capital) must be paid until the whole indebtedness is discharged in thirty-five years.

The following table sets out the scheme for repayment of the purchase money :—

	£
Capital value	100
Deposit	5
Annual instalment	$5\frac{1}{2}$
Interest on unpaid balance	$4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum.

It is also competent for an applicant to pay two or more instalments at any time, should he so desire. Provision is also made for postponement of one or two instalments on application to the Minister, which may be granted, should it be decided that the circumstances warrant it. Also, an applicant may obtain from the Government Savings Bank an advance on the value of improvements which may have been effected on the farm by the Settler.

* Information not available. † Prior to 1894 the areas of sown grasses on alienated and Crown lands were not distinguished. Possibly in the earlier years some areas of Crown lands were under sown grasses, but the acreage thus cultivated would be comparatively small.

NOTE.—In these tables the cultivated area refers to the season ended the following March.

* This total of 119,956,849 acres is that obtained from the returns of occupiers of land. According to the Lands Department, the total area of Crown Lands leased (excluding mining leases and permissive occupancies) on 30th June, 1914, exceeded this area by about half-a-million acres. A considerable allowance must be made on account of areas abandoned or for which no returns could be obtained. † Area in respect of which leases under the Western Lands Act of 1901 have not issued. ‡ This part of County is in the Western Land Division.

NOTE.—Large holdings extending into more than one county are returned in the county where the homestead is situated.

NOTE.—According to the provisions of Act No. 7 of 1907, the tax was not levied on incomes from personal exertion under £1,000, but the Income Tax Act of 1911 provided that all persons, other than Companies, in receipt of £300 per annum or over, were liable to Income Tax, and in the case of companies, the whole receipts were taxable. Under the Income Tax (Amendment) Act of 1914 further increases were imposed, and the exemption was reduced to £250, no deduction being allowed to Companies. A deduction of £50 is allowed for each child under 18 years, and insurance premiums up to £50 are exempt. The tax payable by Companies is 1s. in the £, and by others, it ranges from 8d. to 1s. 2d., with an additional one-third for absentees, or on income not derived from personal exertion.

The particulars for the years 1912 and 1913 are not available.

¶ Includes £375,000 Railway Debentures repaid from Railway Loan Redemption Fund (53 Vic. No. 24), and £150,000 Treasury Bills cancelled.

 Includes £305,000 Advances to Settlers Stock cancelled in terms of section 18 of Government Savings Bank Act, 1906.

†† Includes Treasury Bills to the amount of £336,890 to cover deficiencies in Revenue.

NOTE.—The difference between the amounts outstanding at the close of each year does not, as a rule, represent the actual increase or decrease in the Debt. Repayments of loans are generally effected under the head of renewals, and in following out this practice, it is usually found necessary to float the redeeming loan some time before the due date of the maturing loan; hence the liability appears twice in the Debt Statement till the bonds or stocks are retired

London Agents.—Operations connected with the issue and inscription of Stock are conducted by the Bank of England and the London and Westminster Bank. The former charges ¼ per cent. per £100 Stock on all loan issues, and £350 per million annually for the inscription and management of Stock, including the payment of the half-yearly dividends, while the latter charges ¼ per cent. and £150 per million respectively for similar services.

Local Agents.—The Bank of New South Wales and the Commercial Banking Company of Sydney, Limited, transact all Government banking business. The former acts as Financial Agent for the State in Victoria, and also undertakes the payment of the half-yearly dividends on Local Debentures and Funded Stock. The Treasury, however in local loan issues, directly conducts the operations connected with the issue of New South Wales Funded Stock and Treasury Bills.

NOTE.—Until the close of 1870, the proceeds of loans negotiated in the State were placed to the credit of the Consolidated Revenue Fund. From the beginning of 1871, a new system was adopted, and a separate fund established for each loan floated on and after that date. The first loan treated under the new conditions was that for £374,900, floated in 1871, since redeemed; and no alteration took place till 1879, when all the separate funds were amalgamated under the authority of the "Loan Fund Amalgamation Act," and the subsequent flotations have been carried to the "General Loan Account."

PART XIII.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT.

EXPLANATION.

The tables in this volume were compiled from returns supplied by the various local governing bodies.

The financial tables were summarised from statements prepared by the Councils according to the forms prescribed by the Regulations under the Local Government Act, 1906. These regulations provide that the accounts must be Income and Expenditure Accounts, kept by double entry, and that each "Fund" must have a separate banking account. Thus there is shown for each General, Special, Local, or Loan Fund, and for each Trading Fund, of each area concerned, a "Revenue Account" (or Profit and Loss Account) giving the total expenditure chargeable for the period (whether paid or unpaid) and the total income for the same period (whether received or outstanding). A balance-sheet is also shown for each Fund with appropriate liabilities and assets. Only "realisable" assets are allowed to be included; so that the whole of the roads, bridges, drains, and other constructive works, which are often taken to account as assets elsewhere, are here excluded.

General Fund.—The Local Government Act prescribes that there must be a general fund in each local governing area (municipality or shire), to which must be paid the proceeds of all general and additional general rates, and moneys received by way of grant, endowment, &c., from the Government, and other income not required by law to be carried to other funds. The expenditure from the fund must be on administration, health, roads, and other public services, with the exception that unless exemption has been granted by the Governor, the cost of nightsoil and garbage removal must not be paid out of the General Fund, but out of a Special Fund, and the cost of lighting streets and roads must also be defrayed from a Special Fund. When, however, the municipality is wholly within twenty miles of the Sydney Post Office, or when the whole area of the municipality is benefited by the expenditure on street lighting, the Council may, in its discretion, pay such cost out of the General Fund.

Special Fund.—A Special Fund must be kept for each special rate levied, and for each work or service carried on by the Council in respect of which the special rate has been made, and the fund must be applied only for the purposes of such work or service. A special rate is levied only for a special object, and applies to the whole area.

Local Fund.—A Local Fund must be kept for each local rate levied, with similar restrictions to those in the case of special funds. A local rate is levied for a local purpose, and applies only to that portion of the area which is benefited, and the expenditure of the local fund is restricted to work within, or for the sole benefit of, that portion of the area.

Loan Fund.—A separate loan fund must be kept in respect of each work or service on which a loan is owing. Except where a loan fund has its own revenue from rates, &c., the obligations attendant thereon, such as provision for the repayment of principal and interest, may be met by transfers from the General Fund or other appropriate fund. The object of the loan, as a rule, determines the source from which the Loan Fund obtains its necessary revenue. When the loans have been raised for general purposes transfers are made from the General Fund, and the profits of trading concerns provide for the disbursements of their corresponding loan funds. This refers more particularly to those Loan Funds which must be kept in respect of loans which were raised before the new Act came into operation.

The revenue of special and local funds may be used in a similar manner; for example—a Street Lighting Special Fund must provide the money to meet the ordinary cost of maintaining the street lighting for the year, as well as the obligations of the Street Lighting Loan Fund; and the same conditions apply to the Sewerage Local Fund and Sewerage Loan Fund, Water Supply Special Fund, Water Supply Loan Fund, and all other loan Funds.

The financial transactions of the City of Sydney are shown separately from the other municipalities of the State, as the City Council conducts its affairs under the Sydney Corporation Act, and not under the Local Government Act, which is of later date.

No. 3.—Municipalities—Valuations, 1910–1913.—Comparative Table.

NOTE.—In this table the Unimproved Capital Value of Land is the amount which the fee-simple estate in such land is worth under such reasonable conditions as a bonâ-fide seller would require, assuming the actual improvements had not been made.

NOTE.—These works were constructed under the Country Towns Water and Sewerage Act. The Municipal Council of Richmond administered the service till the 26th May, 1893, when it was temporarily transferred, pending legal powers, to the Metropolitan Board of Water Supply and Sewerage. The Board is much restricted in its management, as only premises owned by persons who have signed agreements to take the water can be rated. The accounts are kept separate from those of the Metropolitan Water Scheme. The rate is 1s. in the £.

* The reduction in revenue is due to the Hawkesbury Agricultural College having ceased to take the supply from the Town Scheme.

† Increase due to abnormally dry season, which caused sand to interfere with pumping. ‡ As adjusted by Auditor-General.
